Joreword

If, in the days to come, you can look through this volume and recall again the golden hours of yesteryear, we shall have fulfilled our object. With Bob Service we can say "Some is bad and some is worse," but we have tried to make it a true picture of life on the Ole Hill, and we send it forth with a prayer that you may be charitable toward its shortcomings.

Facultu

President Watters came to Union as a student in 1903, and received his degree the following year. He then accepted the presidency of Hall-Moody, which he held until 1915. He returned to Union as professor of History and Political Science, receiving the A. M. degree in 1916. From this position he was called to the presidency of the College of Marshall (Texas). In 1918 he came back to Union, this time as President. As student, teacher, and president. Union has always come first with "Prexy." He has given of brain and brawn to Alma Mater and as a result of his labors the eurollment has been increased six-fold, and the school has been brought to a place of leadership among the schools of the South.

Senior Class History

* * *

Four years ago our class of fifty embarked on the grand old ship "Union" and started on a perilous voyage. During these eventful years of storm and stress, our courage has never failed us and now we find ourselves coming into port.

As we anchor in this port, each will leave the ship with a degree in his possession. Then we may see the land of success lying out before us. As we separate and travel through this land each in his own chosen path, we will ever cherish the memories of the happy days spent in the spacious staterooms and on the rolling deck of the grand old ship.

Never will we forget our trustworthy captain and his faithful crew who have so carefully guided our course for these years. As we, the passengers of 1924, bid farewell to our ship and those following our course, we treasure them and their lessons of greater service to humanity in our hearts. As we go, each to his chosen profession, we hope to plant the flag of our Alma Mater on the highest pinnacle of success.

Motto: "The elevator to success is not running; take the stairs."

Junior History

In September, 1921, a jolly group of Freshmen came on the old Hill looking for a short road to success. We soon learned that "The elevator to success" is a back-number. Accordingly we sought the old dependable stairs, resolving to ascend to that coveted height of graduation.

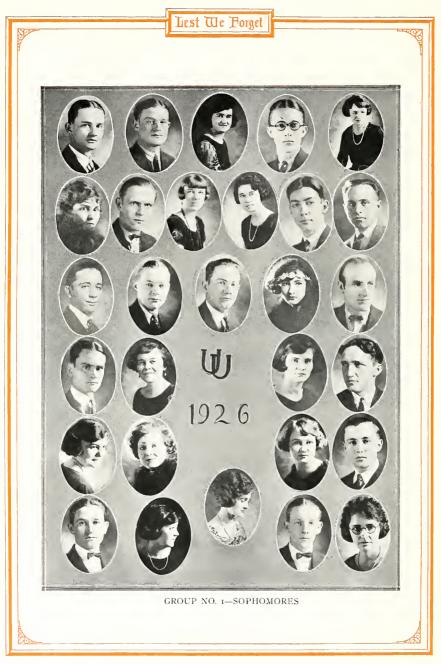

We began the first stage of our journey under the leadership of William Cox. After nine months of toil, we came out on the first landing of our ascent. Miss Claire Gilbert was chosen as our second leader. She faithfully conducted us to the landing at the top of the second flight of stairs.

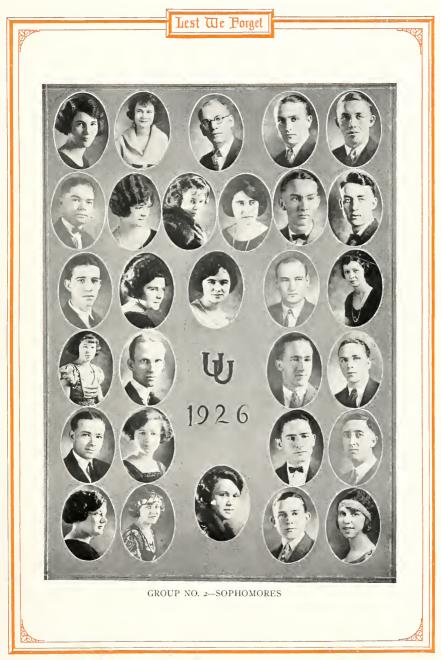

As we came back to our places at the beginning of this school year, we saw new heights to be attained. The Seniors were to be entertained and sent out properly on their new ventures of life. Indeed there was much for us to accomplish during this dignified period of Juniordom. Frank Ricketts was chosen as the general for this year's attainments. Faithfully we have worked and now we look toward the consummation of our achievements as we go out in 1925 as Graduates of our beloved Alma Mater.

It was the fall of 1922 that the present Sophomore class made its first impression on the Hill, And an impression it was, too, with over a hundred members and the usual characteristics "green and fresh." Our president, C. L. Dodds, proved very faithful to the ship he piloted. We struggled along with Chemistry, Math., and English with the grit that none others have done, and at the end of the year we were duly repaid, because the breaking-in year was over.

And now we are in our Sophomore year and find ourselves "overly wise." With our president, Freeman Privett, our accomplishments have been very creditable. On the gridiron we find from our ranks Captain Roy Stewart, C. L. Dodds and Grady Evans; on the basket-ball court Captain C. L. Dodds, and on the cheer leader stand, Bus Latta. We are just beginning to realize how much there is yet to learn, so may we cherish in our last two years the same hope and same ideals that we have cherished in the past.

The Class of '27 was organized under the supervision of Prof. G. E. Shankle. With the large roll of one hundred and twenty-two energetic Freshmen, it has been able to accomplish every task. Mr. Givens Wright our president, has proved to be an excellent captain and has always steered clear of the rocks.

One of the notable achievements of the class was the unique float prepared for Armistice Day. It characterized the class as a newly-hatched chicken breaking through the shell of College Life. On several occasions the class enjoyed refreshments and games. Out of the class was born the "Bull Pups," who made a substantial record. We are hopeful, ambitious, and not lacking in courage. We are determined to imbibe the spirit of our Ahma Mater:

O. Alma Mater, our affections cling to thee; Faithful and loyal may we ever be. May our Master's watchcare O'r us one and all extend; Till again in Union Heart and voice we blend.

CHORUS

Union, dearest Union, Yes, we'll sing thy spreading fame; Union, dearest Union, Honor'd be thy name.

Dear Alma Mater, hear thy offspring's plighted vow, Firmer and truer, may we be than now. Mem'ry fondly lingers, Calling back departed days, Every task grows lighter As we sing thy praise.

Low'd Alma Mater, o'er us shed Scholastic Light, E'en as we wander from thy halls tonight; And tho' years divide us And in distant lands we roam, Yet in dreams we'll gather "Round our Home Sweet Home,"

This unit was established at Union University Nov. 15, 1922. At first there were fifteen trainees; it has grown until the number is sixty-five.

Among this number, are men who have faced the shell fire on the front lines of almost every sector in France. Ten divisions are here represented. Among this number is one who has been decorated with the Croix de Guerre; with the Palm; the highest honor given an American soldier by the French Government. He also has a Distinguished Service Cross given by the United States Government.

The training given in this department is for the purpose of preparing the disabled soldier to overcome the physical handicap which he received during his period of service.

Union is to be congratulated upon being one of the few institutions, which enjoys the privilege of doing her part in this great work.

Department of Home Economics

MISS CHARLOTTE WATSON

With the beginning of the year '23-'24 Union University saw a newlyequipped department for Home Economics. This department has grown so rapidly under the direction of Miss Watson that it was forced to seek larger rooms and equipment. It was therefore moved to Crook Hall. Another teacher, Miss Grace Powers, who is a graduate of Union University, was given charge of Domestic Arts department. The B. S. degree is now offered in Home Economics. Teacher-training and related art courses are given. A six-room cottage has been provided this year for Senior students taking the laboratory course in Home Management. They occupy the house for one term, assuming the responsibility of household operations.

The Girls have organized a Home Ec. Club and have been doing splendid work for the department.

Department of Fine Arts

MRS. A. WARREN PRINCE, Director

Under the able direction of Mrs. Arthur Warren Prince, the Conservatory has been making splendid progress. The enrollment has been increasing and this year shows marked success.

Mrs. Prince is widely known throughout Tennessee for her musical ability both as a teacher and an artist. She has been Organist at First Baptist Church of this city since 1909; and Director of Conservatory of Music, Union University, since 1910.

The piano-forte occupies a place of dignity and value, and rightly deserves treatment commensurate with its place as a factor in musical education. Post-graduate, graduate, and work for teachers of piano is offered.

MRS. ANNA BELLE W. HAWKINS Head of Department

The Voice Department is indeed fortunate in having at its head Mrs. Annie Hawkins. A number of students have been enrolled and the outlook for the coming year is promising.

Mrs. Hawkins is a native of this city. She has studied with the best teachers in America, Witherspoon not excluded. Mrs. Hawkins has had a private studio in the city for several years. She was elected head of the Voice Department in Union University in the fall of 1923. Under her leadership, the department shows much development and we are sure this will steadily increase.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA DEPARTMENT

With the beginning of the year of 1923-24, Union University saw a new department in action. It was then that Union first added this department of Fine Arts Courses. The school has not mis-judged the need for this department and a large number of students enrolled for this work.

Mr. Guyon is a capable teacher and director, having been director of several large orchestras and bands. His mastery of the stringed and wind instruments shows ability, intellectuality and musicianship.

The University band and orchestra are making much progress, and we feel that the future shall be bright for the entire department.

JOSEPH NAPOLEON GUYON

Born-In wigwam on the White Earth reservation of the Chippewa tribe in Minnesota, November 26, 1894.

Notable Events in Career:

- (1) Ran ten miles back to the reservation when he saw a train for the first time.
- (2) Entered Haskell Industrial school for Indians at the age of eleven, and had reputation of being clumsiest boy in school.
- (3) After two years in Haskell Institute, he spent four years on the reservation.
- (4) Entered Carlisle in 1912. Played tackle on the team with Jim Thorpe that same year. Played Halfback on the same team in 1913, making Walter Camp's All-American.
- (5) Entered Keewatin preparatory school at Waukesha, Minn. Played football, basket-ball and baseball.

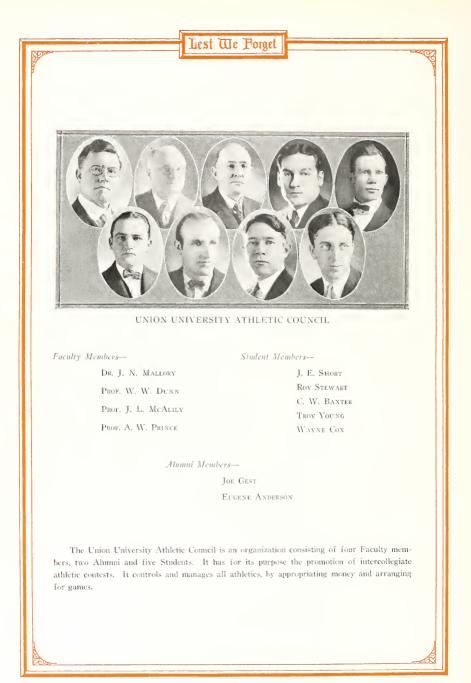

- (C) Entered Georgia Tech. in 1916, starred on Freshman team, won four first track meet.
- (7) Made letters in football, basketball and track in 1917-18 while in Georgia Tech. The "Big Chief" carried the ball ten tumes against Vanderbilt in 1917 for an average of over 28 yards.
- (8) Coached Union football squad and played professional baseball in 1919.
- (9) Played baseball with Atlanta Southern League Club 1920 to 1923, and was rated as one of the best outfielders in Southern League in 1923.
- (10) Coached the Union Bull Dogs in 1923-24, and turned out one of the best football and basket-ball teams that Union has ever had.

Thus reads the history of one of the greatest athletes the world has ever known. Many of the leading coaches and sport writers of the country class him as Jim Thorpe's only rival.

Heisman, coach at Georgia Tech, and later at University of Pennsylvania, says: "Jo Guyon is the best man I ever coached."

Glen Warren says: "The only man that will rival Jim Thorpe."

Coach Guyon has won the heart of every one in Union. He is a gentleman, a true sportsman and a real coach. By the end of the 1923 football season he had every man on the squad as tricky as an Indian and playing the greatest game of his life. Coach Guyon has turned down more than one tempting offer to be back at Union next fall. He wants to help old Union win the respect and admiration of the larger schools of the South. Look out for Guyon and his Bull Dogs in 1924.

When the umpire calls you out, It's no use to stamp and shout, Wildly kicking dust about— Play the game; And though his decision may End your chances for the day, Rallies often end that way— Play the game.

When the umpire shouts: "Strike two," And the ball seems wild to you, There is just one thing to do: Play the game; Keep your tenper at the plate, Grit your teeth and calmly wait, For the next one may be straight— Play the game. When you think the umpire's wrong, Tell him so, but jog along; Nothing's gained by language strong— Play the game; For his will must be obeyed Wheresoever baseball's played, Take his verdict as it's made— Play the game.

Son of mine, beyond a doubt, Fate shall often call you "out," But keep on, with courage stout— Play the game; In the battlefield of men There'll come trying moments when You shall lose the verdict—then Play the game.

There's an umpire who shall say You have missed your greatest play. And shall dash your hopes away— Play the game; You must bow unto his will Though your chance it seems to kill, And you think he erred, but still Play the game. For the Great Umpire above Sees what we see nothing of, By His wisdom and His love— Play the game; Keep your faith in Him although His grim verdiets hurt you so; At His will we come and go— Play the game.

Robert WestmoreLand, Capt.-Elect Tackle - 172 Pounds

Bob is one of the best foothall players that ever donned a Bull Dog uniform. He was in every game and in almost every play. Westmoreland will make a real leader for the 1924 Bull Dogs.

John Aycock Guard - - - 173 Pounds

John made good from the start. He can always be counted on to open holes for the backs when the play is coming over him, and he is there when it comes to stopping plays that are directed at him. A man that can always be counted on to give his best. CHARLES RICE End and Center, 182 Pounds

"Chunk's" first game at center, with only three days' practice, against an All-Southern man was enough to convince Coach Guyou that he was ready for a place on the varsity. Rice will be found at the end position next year.

FRED MAYS

Tackle - - - 192 Pounds

Big Mays was slow getting started, but he was right there once he did get going. With this year's experience to help him he should be a great help to the Bull Dogs in their fall drive for football glory in 1924.

J. E. Short

Center-Tackle - 178 Pounds

The most efficient manager Union ever had. Short really found himself when Coach placed him at center, and it can be said of him that he is one of the greatest scrappers among the "Bull Dogs."

BONNIE MERCER

Guard - - - 185 Pounds

He may be bashful, but when you get bim on the gridfron "you'd be surprised." He was in the game fighting all the time. A hard worker, full of fight and never complains.

THURMAN MCLEAN

End - - - - 170 Pounds

"Mac" is the fastest man and surest tackler on the team. It was next to impossible for opposing backs to circle his end. Ile will be back next year to lend a helping hand in Union's fight for football honors.

RAYMOND TATE Halfback - - 170 Pounds

Tate's brokenfield runs thrill the crowds wherever he goes. He gained more ground than any other man on the squad this past scason. Tate has plenty of grit and is full of the old Bull Dog fight.

IKE MERRIWETHER

End - - - - 140 Pounds

Little Ike was one of the smallest men on the squad. but what he lacked in weight he made up for in fighting spirit. He had to drop out of school in mid-season. We miss him very much.

CLARENCE BAXTER

Fullback - - 183 Pounds

The old "Truck Horse" is one of the best athletes that ever stepped on a local gridiron. He leaves us this year. He goes out from old Union with the best wishes of his friends and teammates.

WILLIAM FERGUSON

End - - - 160 Pounds

Old reliable Bill always gave his best whether in a game or in practice. A game fighter, a true sport and a clean fellow. His fighting spirit and loyalty wou him an everlasting place in the hearts of his teanunates. JACK BREWER

Guard - - - 160 Pounds

Jack made his letter in his senior year. He played the game like a veteran at all times. A hard worker and a likeable chap.

Basket Ball

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

The basketball season of 1924 was one of the shortest that the Bull Dogs have played in years. There were only eight regular scheduled games. The season, though short, was a success in many respects. The team was one of the best that has been turned out by the school in a long time. Every letter man except one will be back next year and it is hoped that the season will be longer and more successful.

Results of the Season

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Although the Girls' Basketball team lost a majority of its games, it was one of the strongest that has ever represented the school. Many new players were on the team and it took them some time to become adjusted. The team played some of the strongest teams in the South.

Base Ball

BASEBALL

Before sending the "Annual" manuscript to the press, it was impossible to know the outcome of the baseball season. However, with such a beginning as the Union team has made, nothing short of a victorious year is anticipated. The games with Transylvania College are only typical of those played by former teams of old Union University.

THE J. R. GRAVES SOCIETY OF RELIGIOUS INQUIRY

The J. R. Graves Society of Religious Inquiry is a society for the ministerial students. It was organized in 1877 and named in honor of Dr. J. R. Graves. It meets every Friday afternoon in its own well-furnished room. Here the most interesting religious subjects and doctrinal questions are discussed. Seven members of the Faculty are members of this society and add much to the instructiveness of the programs.

Motto: "Search the Scriptures."

Organized in 1877

THE U. C. U. CLUB.

The United for Christ and Union Club was organized about March 1, 1924. The first members were those who had attended the student conferences at Muríreesboro and Indianapolis.

The purpose of this club is to study conditions on the campus. The meetings are open forums for the discussion of student problems and their solutions in light of the ethical teachings of Christ.

WHEN THE TRUMPET SOUNDS

-Tennie B, will be thinking of Robert

Sallie Jewell will be dignified.

Reed will be playing foot-ball. -Nellie "Dear" will be writing to Homer.

Martin McCoy will be looking up.

Paul will be looking for Cat.

Sweet potatoes will be served in the dining hall.

Helen will be looking for her glasses.

-Inez will be talking about Joe.

-Lacy Keele will own the campus.

-Hambone will be a house-maid.

-Dan Throgmorton will be a grown boy.

-Hope Pool will be doing her duty.

-Connie Hargrove will be using hair tonic. -Harry Carter will still be contradicting his own arguments.

-Floyd Waldrop will be courting Jack Davis

-Claire Gilbert will be looking down on people.

-Mr. Rutledge will be looking for his classroom.

-Prof. Shankle will be grading papers.

-Louise Carter will be late.

Luper: Lacy, do you know the difference between a preacher and a doctor?

Lacy: No; what is it? Luper: Gee! I'd hate to send you for a doctor.

Hope Pool: I don't know whether I like these photographs or not. They seem rather indistinct.

Photographer: Well, you must remember, Miss Pool, that your face is not at all plain.

Mr. Shankle: Have you ever read "An Ode to a Louse?"

Red Rose: No, sir; I can't keep them still long enough.

He: Oh, I say, Miss Smith, don't address me as Mr. Stevens.

She: But really, Mr. Stevens, I hardly know you. Why shouldn't I call you Mr. Stevens?

He: Because my name is Jones.

Inez: Oh, Joe, dear, why did you turn out the light?

Joe: I wanted to see if my cigar was still out.

Dr. Watters: Everett, what for you go up der stairs two at a time? Everett: To safe my shoes, Papa.

Dr. Watters: Dot's right, my son; but look oudt you don't split your pandts.

Red Rose: Can you talk with your hands?

Troy: Yes; but I usually get slapped.

Ollie Park (to shoe salesman): I would like to see a pair of shoes to fit my feet. Salesman: Yes, Mister, so would I.

Mr. Mallory: If I said, "I am handsome," what tense would that be?

Martin McCoy: Past.

Harvey: Nobody seems to understand me. Kate: I don't see why; you seem perfectly smiple.

Lillie Mae: Raymond means all the world to me. Pearl Harris: You'd better see more of the world.

Mr. Shankle: Everett, make a sentence using the word "letter."

Everett: The man pulled the trigger and "let her go."

Dan: Ham, do you use Colgate's toothpaste?"

Hambone: No; I don't room with him.

Hanner: Did you know that Dixon talks in his sleep?

Paul: No; does he?

Hanner: He certainly does. He recited in class this morning.

Jack: Well, I must be off. Grace: So I noticed a long time ago.

Mr. Rutledge is a busy man,

His jaws keep working some; When he doesn't chew the rag,

He works on chewing gum.

Helen Lowe: Are you taking Shakespeare?

Claire : Yes.

Helen: What are you studying? Claire: Richard III and King John. Helen: Who wrote them?

Jokes--Continued

Dr. Davis: Mr. Cox, what is meant by moulting 3

Wayne: Laying eggs, I guess.

Claire: Where's the funny paper? Nelle: Why, this isn't Sunday. I told you not to take a bath last night.

Cat: Paul, if you don't hush. I'll go insane

Paul: I'm going, too.

Reed: Have you taken Anti-toxin? Jennings: No; who teaches it?

Mr. Cox: Say, Dixon, I've got a "Brindle mule" with as much sense as I have. Dixon: Well, Wayne, don't tell anybody; you might want to sell that mule,

THE POOR UNFORTUNATE FRESHIE

The Freshie's road is a rugged one, His subjects he tries not to lag. But instead of earrying one gracefully He lets them everyone drag.

He failed in psychology, He flunked in English B. He busted flat in Freshman Math. Almost passed Chemistry.

A FOOL THERE WAS A fool there was who took an exam, For this he had long staved home to cram. But the fool he found his brain like a clam, Which enabled him not to pass the exam,

The hours that he spent and the time he lost, Was spoiled by his future doom, For when he had finished the horrid exam, He was almost ready for his tomb.

This fool there was, various things he took, He begged for mercy, but the Prof.'s head shook,

All the teachers wrote "20" in his little blue book.

This gave the poor lad a very stony look.

Then the tears fell fast, And his face was like marble: His knees played a tune Like a joy-bird's warble.

Oh! it wasn't the trust and then the BUST That hurt his feelings so;

It was coming to know that he never would pass

And his grades would always be low.

There's many a flunk twixt the green cap and the sheepskin.

KNOWLEDGE OF THE HOLY BOOK No, I don't dread my exam in Bible, If some do flunk, why, I'm not liable, Though my classmates get nervous and ouake.

Oh! There's nothing to make me shake.

'Cause I know for certain that Eve and Ely Were hurriedly called forth on the fourth of July;

That Adam built the tower of Babel, And Matthew killed his brother Abel.

I know Nell Abram spat up the whale, And Peter held a rummage sale;

That Lot by himself built the Ark,

And two years later sent out the lark.

God was baptized in the river Jordan, And Dives helped people from a heavy burden.

Now, if my teacher is fair at all, I'll not knock an "A," but it'll just fall, _____

TRAGEDY

Handsome man, Great big moon. Sweet Maid's pretty pout, Gentle whisper, Heavy clinch; Another pin put out,

A kiss, A sigh, A long good-bye, And she is gone; A glance, A curl, Another girl, And thus the world moves on.

Two hearts yearn, In love's sweet prison, Where his is hern, And hern is his'n.

What a wonderful bird the frog are: When he stand he sit, almost; When he hop he fly, almost; He ain't got no sense, hardly, He ain't got no tail, hardly, either; When he sit, he sit on what he ain't got, almost.

KISSES

Though a kiss be amiss, She who misses the kisses, May miss becoming a Mrs. And he who misses the kisses of misses, May miss all of the blisses Of becoming a Mr. to Mrs.

* FUNNY ACCIDENTS

I saw a cow slip through the fence, A horse fly in the store; I saw a board walk up the street, A stone step by the door.

I saw a mill race up the road, A morning break the gloom; I saw a night fall on the lawn, A clock run in the room.

l-saw a peanut stand up high, A sardine box in town; I saw a bed spring at the gate, An ink stand on the ground.

> They met by chance, They had never met before. They met by chance And she was stricken sore.

They never met again, Don't want to, I'll allow; They met but once— Twas a freight train and a cow.

------

A kiss is something like gossip-it goes from mouth to mouth.

Never stop a man running with a hat box in his hand—tt may be his wife's hat that he's trying to get home before the style changes! THERE ARE SMILES, ETC.

She smiled, And I smiled back; I met another— She smiled, I smiled, too. (So would you.) They all smiled— I thought it queer, I began to fear, (So would you.) And then I found MY sock was down Over my shoe— And then I knew. (So would you.)

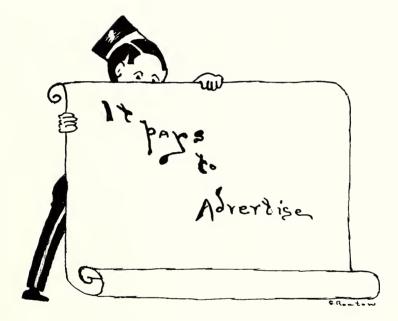

"Lives of great men all remind us, We can have our pictures took, And departing, leave hebind us, Just exactly how we look."

When love is only a dream, the marriage is an alarm clock.

To kill a quarrel, shut your mouth.

There is one place we can bear a boil and smile—on the other fellow's neck.

Do not kick at the squirrel that runs up to you in the park; it may be only mistaken identity—he thought he saw a nut.
